

Stephen Lunn – Tasmania

Stephen Lunn is a well-known and widely respected chef with over 30 years' experience in the industry. After growing up in Western Australia, Stephen worked for a variety of restaurants throughout Australia and Europe. In 1999 Stephen was awarded Western Australia's Most Outstanding Chef. He has competed internationally, receiving the Gold Award at the Ireland International Salon Culinare, as well as receiving awards at National and State levels.

Stephen has been employed at Guilford Young College for the past 6 years as the Lead VET Hospitality Teacher and Moderator for seven Association Colleges and also as a Trainer of fellow teachers. Stephen decided to teach at college level after four years of training apprentices and recognising that students entering apprenticeships did not have the required level of training.

Stephen is currently State President of the Tasmanian Chapter and is Tasmania's Chief of Judges.
