

Steven Clark – South Australia

Steven Clark is a highly motivated and dedicated chef with an extensive culinary repertoire. He has a strong work ethic built on sound experience through a wide range of culinary fields in the UK, as well as luxury hotels and restaurants throughout New Zealand and Australia. Steven currently leads the kitchen team at the National Wine Centre, with a strong focus on training and mentoring young chefs and using the best produce South Australia has to offer.